Pastor's Letter—October 2013

“Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received.” (1 Peter 4:10)

My dear Chapel Lane family and friends,

I was very touched on a recent Sunday morning when Suz and Sandy Miller said their good-byes to us before moving to Colorado and, in sharing her joy for the honor of serving this congregation and the P.C.(U.S.A.) for so many years, our former Clerk promised to pray for us and for our ministry. She said her prayer will be that this wonderful, thriving church at the corner of Chapel Lane and Jefferson Avenue may continue to serve Christ and the people of Midland with its valuable Christian witness for many years to come.

I suspect that we all feel, like Suz, that Chapel Lane offers a unique and valuable ministry to our community, and that we are called by God to support that ministry with our time, talents, resources and prayers. I also suspect that each of us has a story we could tell of what it means to be a part of this unique Christian community. We will hear a few of these stories, in fact, during our upcoming Stewardship Campaign. And I want to thank Paul and Melissa Teed for organizing the campaign and giving voice to our communal story.

But I hope the effort to share our stories about Chapel Lane's unique ministry won't stop there! I hope you will take some time this Fall to share with others what it is that makes Chapel Lane important to you and why you believe it to be a unique community of grace, love and laughter whose witness must be ongoing. As I look back over the year, I am grateful to God for Chapel Lane and for the rich gifts we have received and shared:

lively and compelling worship, including a vibrant music program that took our choir to Carnegie Hall;
a growing Sunday School and youth program, including another season of record enrollment at Church Camp and Vacation Bible School;
opportunities for mission and service, including local, national and global mission support;
a developing Stephen Ministry program;
a good number of talented and passionate new members, and a good influx of visitors to worship;
a beautiful new roof over the sanctuary and quite a few updates to our Christian Education wing;
a new staff member (Nikelle Johnson) who is creative, energetic, gifted in the field of Christian Education, and who genuinely feels called to service at Chapel Lane;
a stable leadership base that is committed to its calling of making disciples, witnessing to the gospel of Jesus Christ, nurturing the faith of Chapel Lane's members and friends, and keeping this church strong.

We have done so much good work and managed to keep current on our expenses. Thanks be to God for memorial gifts and extra commitment giving that helped us pay for a good many of the non-budgeted expenses over the course of the past year. I must confess, though, that it would be wonderful if we could do more than just keep current on our expenses. It would be an awesome testimony of our trust in God's providence and our faith in the witness of Christ through the ministry of Chapel Lane Presbyterian Church if we were to have sufficient resources to grow further opportunities for worship, study, service, outreach, and fellowship in this place. If you agree, you can help by participating in a CLPC covenant to “serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received.” It is my prayer that we will all commit to being “good stewards of the manifold grace of God.” I hope it is your prayer, too.

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Rhonda

New Hymnal Dedication

Glory to God Hymnal Dedication

We have been told by the publisher of the new church hymnal, Glory to God, to expect shipment of the books sometime over the course of the coming month. While we probably will not receive a more precise shipping date for another week or two, it is our hope to have copies in hand by the end of the month so that we can dedicate the new hymnal on Reformation Sunday, October 27th. Since so much of what we learn about our Reformed faith and theology comes from the songs we sing, Reformation Sunday seems a fitting date for the hymnal dedication. After all, what better way to celebrate the Church Reformed, Always Reforming than to lift up our voices in praise of God's glorious plan for the church through the witness of a new worship and teaching tool. In readiness for the arrival of the new hymnbooks, the choir will use the month of October to introduce us to some of the new songs that will enrich our worship in the days ahead. Listen each week for a new song.

Christian Educational Programming:

Sunday School continues for all ages on Sunday mornings from 9:30-10:30!
Join a class for a time of fellowship and learning together.

Midland Area CROP WALK is October 6.

The Chapel Lane youth will be walking to raise funds to battle hunger! Many people around the world have to walk to obtain fresh water, food, shelter, etc. 25% of funds raised go to support LOCAL agencies—Midland County Emergency Food Pantry, Salvation Army, Open Door and Project Fresh. Please stop by our table to find out more, and support our youth! Our goal is to raise at least $1,500!

Youth Updates:

We had a great kick off meeting, played some fun games, talked about how TOGETHER we are the church and we need each other and closed with some ice cream sundaes!

October is a busy month! October 6th is the Crop Walk—meet at Midland Center for the Arts at 1:45p.m.!! (If you are in choir Ms. Karen will help you get there).

October 13 is a regular meeting 2:30-4 p.m. (hangout time before from 2-2:30).

October 19-20 is a quick getaway weekend! We are going to head to Cran Hill Ranch for some fun together, rock climbing, smores, etc. Cost is $40. $ and necessary permission slips need to be turned in by Saturday morning! Meet at CLPC at 9a.m. Saturday, October 19, we will be back on Sunday by noon. Let Nikelle know if you can attend by October 13. (Note, this is a date change! It was previously scheduled for September).

October 27, 2:30-4 p.m., we will head out to Grandma's Pumpkin Patch for some fall fun!

WEDNESDAY EVENING Bible Study and Potluck

Please join us on Wednesday evenings from 6:45 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. for fellowship, food and study. This is an informal gathering that begins with a light potluck meal and moves into study. The studies are generally based upon the Thoughtful Christian materials, but vary according to the desires of the group.

Thursday Bible Study

Thursday Afternoon Bible Study:

Our Thursday Afternoon Bible Study is currently looking at the Gospel of Luke. While it is a familiar book to many of us, this class is helping us to see that there is much we can still learn about the person, work, and teachings of Jesus Christ through the witness of the gospel writer Luke. We meet in the parlor at 1:00 p.m. each Thursday. You do not have to be a biblical scholar to benefit from this study group. But you have to enjoy a good read and appreciate a good time.

On the Move ...

With Mission

Plan now to attend a star-studded program about mission on Sunday, October 20, at 4 p.m., in the foyer. "Star-studded?" you ask. Yes! The stars are those we know who have participated in mission activities, locally, nationally and internationally.

Kelly Buell, for instance, will share information about Presbyterian Disaster Assistance (PDA), the emergency and refugee program of the Presbyterian Church U.S.A., in which he participates in an ongoing manner.

In addition, Tina Jacobs will explain what initially interested her in our presbytery's mission activities in Costa Rica, and why she returned in subsequent years.

And then Butch Brauer, plus Tom Ryden from Memorial (and perhaps others), will recount their experiences during the Superstorm Sandy Clean-Up mission trip.

This event is sponsored by the Board of Christian Education. Please plan to attend to understand better what these "stars" have experienced in their specific mission opportunities.

Deacons Doings:

Highlights of the Board of Deacons are posted in the Deacons' section of the kiosk. Disbursement reports are included.

Emergency Relief Recipients:

The Board of Deacons voted to assist two local programs with the 4Q 2013 emergency relief budget line item of $450. The new community school model program at Eastlawn Elementary School received $100 for school supplies. The Midland County Emergency Food Pantry Network received $350 for the Backpack Buddies program. Children in grades K-5 will benefit from our monetary gifts.

Stephen Ministries Life Membership:

The Board of Deacons voted to have a Life Membership in Stephen Ministries for Chapel Lane. The membership fee of $1,670 was paid from the Deacons' Angel Fund. Four Chapel Lane members are Stephen Ministers: Tom Kennedy; Kate Mass; Joan Frame; and Carol Ostergren. Carolyn Cole was the first Stephen Minister in our church. If you are in need of this unique and confidential one-on-one ministry of caring, please contact Pastor Rhonda.

Cajun Drive Thru Dinner

Monday, October 21, 2013 a Cajun meal of red beans, sausage and rice with sides or a vegetarian version will be held at Chapel Lane. Profits from the dinner will be divided into thirds to support: Haiti, Henry Family and Member in Mission funds. The dinner team still needs some individuals with strong and long arms to do some lifting of heavy pots and the stirring of the beans. If you are interested in joining the dinner team, please contact Kelly or Kerry Buell at 835-4542. Otherwise please mark your calendar and make your reservations as there are only a limited number of meals available.

Sponsors Sought: Many of our food items have increased in cost from last year. If you would like to donate, please write a check to Chapel Lane Presbyterian and indicate Cajun dinner on the memo line and place in the envelopes found in the mission section of the kiosk. Please assist the counters by providing your envelope number for quicker data entry. Thanks for your continued support.

Special Offering

The Peacemaking Offering is the third of four special offerings that are collected each year. This offering will be dedicated on October 6th, World Communion Sunday. The designated local share (25%) of this offering will be donated to The Arc of Midland.

Mobile Food Pantry

The MFP is a program of the Midland County Emergency Food Pantry Network. Food is given to the first 250 families (income level is not a criterion) who arrive in time for the give-away that begins between 11 a.m. and noon. The last MFP of this year will be held on Wednesday, October 16, 2013, at the United Steelworkers Hall located on James Savage Road in Midland. If you are in need of food, you may call 211 or contact the Network at 486-9393.

NEEDED! Due to the loss of several voices in our Adult choir this past year (Ben & Emily left for college and Chrissy & Dirk moved away), the Adult choir could use your help! Do you sing and know how to read music? We could definitely use YOU and your voice! Please prayerfully consider joining the choir. Feel free to talk to Karen Graef if you have any questions.

Board of Stewards:

Have you noticed?

Our Board of Stewards and others have been very busy over the summer in updating our Church. Please take a few moments to enjoy these additions to our wonderful Chapel Lane facility.

Sanctuary: Big project: New red metal roof—no more leaks!

Activity Room: Repair of walls and painting, new carpeting, new valances as window treatments and a wall clock.

Three-Year Olds Room: New carpeting and valances and painting of walls.

Outside: Gardeners have been busy keeping our grounds, flowers and gardens looking so beautiful.

Many thanks to our Gifts and Memorials donations—these projects were all accomplished without dipping into our budgeted monies or having to ask for an extra giving. We thank Nancy Stanley for making the valances and both Nancy and Carol Roe spearheading the up-dating of our Activity Room. We are so blessed and God is good.

CLPC Fall Clean-up: Let’s continue to keep our church looking its best! Please come to the fall clean-up at Chapel Lane on Saturday, October 26th beginning at 9:00 a.m. The clean-up activities include: raking, window washing, yard work, more raking, cleaning the gutters, and general outdoor work. If the weather does not cooperate, the alternate date is Saturday, November 2nd. Please bring your own rake and gloves. Hope you can help!

Stewardship Campaign 2014

This month the Stewardship Campaign will get into full swing as we prepare to dedicate our 2014 financial pledges on Sunday, November 10th at the 8:30 and 10:45 services. This year’s Stewardship Campaign theme is “Supporting a Unique Christian Community.” We are truly blessed to have a diverse, intergenerational congregation providing opportunities for members and friends to deepen their faith in God and to live out the transforming message of the Gospel week by week. During the month of October, we will be hearing from members of the church, both in writing and in person, about what the “unique Christian community” at Chapel Lane means to them. A devotional series, based on these reflections, will be available to our congregation through email and on the CLPC website. We hope that as you think about your pledge for 2014, you will use these reflections to consider renewed or increased support for the vital ministries of our wonderful church.

Paul Teed For the 2013-2014 Stewardship Committee

CHECK IT OUT

A.J. Jacobs is an “immersion journalist.” As such he “immerses” himself in his subject and then writes about it. As a non-practicing Jew and a self-avowed atheist, he set out to live according to Biblical scripture for a year. He followed rules and observances he found from studying the Bible in several versions, Bible reference books, and consulting several religious Judeo-Christian advisors. The book he wrote, published in 2007, is “The Year of Living Biblically: One Man’s Humble Quest to Follow the Bible as Literally as Possible.”

He says, on page 7, “It’s impossible to immerse yourself in religion for twelve months and emerge unaffected.” So with humor and some profound thoughts he reveals how he changed, how he hopes he became a better person, and how “sometimes you have to look beyond the weirdness.” (page 87)

Chapel Lane Library has two copies of this book and it was discussed at both our May and September Book Club meetings. Check it out!

Sue Haske Lane, Librarian

The selection for Monday, November 25th is Walking Across Egypt by Clyde Eggerton. Since the usual meeting date is the fourth Monday, the group will NOT meet in December.

THANK YOU LETTER TO CHURCH FAMILY

Dear Beloved Chapel Lane Church Family,

This is probably the most difficult “thank you” letter I’ve ever written. Sandy and I were humbled by your expressions of love during and after the 10:45 a.m. worship service on September 15. The prayer, the tribute and the letter were overwhelming. Then, Nancy Stanley came forward with a gift of a quilt from you! It was beyond all dreams we would have had for taking all of you with us.

We will depart on October 25 for Denver, and move into our new home on November 1. Our new address and phone number will be in the church office. I’ll send Joyce our e-mail address once we are settled. Please know that we have 2 extra bedrooms and bathrooms. I hope you know me well enough when I say you are welcome to stay with us if you get to Denver. We’ll miss you, but will hope we’ll see you again either here in Midland or in Denver.

With love,

Suz Miller

The Presbytery of Lake Huron

At the most recent meeting of the Presbytery of Lake Huron, on Tuesday, September 17th at the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Bay City, Pastor Rhonda was elected to serve both as a member of the Presbytery’s Committee on Preparation for Ministry (CPM) and as a reader of Ordination Exams for prospective pastors to the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). Pastor Rhonda has served as a reader of Ordination Exams on at least ten previous occasions and is privileged to serve in that capacity again. What’s more, she is honored to serve on the committee that is responsible for nurturing and guiding the next generation of pastors in their pursuit of the gospel ministry. (It seems particularly fitting work for Pastor Rhonda given that Chapel Lane currently has a member—Chrissy Westbury—who is an Inquirer under care of our Session and the CPM of our Presbytery!)

Save the Date:

Midland County Project Housing Connect on November 6, 2013

Midland Area Homes will once again host a community assistance event. It will be held at the First United Methodist Church on Main Street on November 6, 2013 from 11 AM to 2 PM. This is an event where individuals and families who find themselves “at risk” of losing their housing, in the city and county of Midland, will be gathering. They will be given a free lunch and will have the opportunity to connect/access services and hopefully find solutions to their housing crisis.

There is a great need for new or gently used coats (men’s or women’s various sizes). Also needed are new or gently used blankets or throws. As winter approaches those who are homeless are in special need. If you can help, please drop these items off at the church by Oct. 27th. There will a box in the hallway outside the office.

Thank you for your generous donations. The Board of Deacons.

Volunteer Opportunities

Volunteer Opportunities in Midland:

EFPN Warehouse Volunteer Needed

The Midland County Emergency Food Pantry Network (EFPN) has a large garage attached to its office site on south Saginaw Road. The garage space is being renovated to serve as a warehouse to store large quantities of food ordered from the Eastern Michigan Food Bank and received from Hidden Harvest. The food items then will be divided into smaller quantities to be distributed to the eight food pantries in the Network.

Examples of food items would be corn, potatoes, onions, apples, oranges, melons. And other produce that would arrive in totes and would have to be sorted into individual plastic shopping bags for clients to receive at the pantries throughout Midland County. Can you be added to the volunteer call list that is being established? You would indicate how often you could help. The truck from the Food Bank arrives every other Tuesday at 11:30 in the morning. The truck from Hidden Harvest would schedule to arrive on a specific day once the warehouse is ready (October?) to receive the food. Please contact Sally Ann Sutton (835-2428) or Sue Dallessandro (sdallessandro@gmail.com) if you are interested in serving as a volunteer at the time of your choosing. Thank you for considering this ministry in our community.

NOW IS THE PERFECT TIME TO MAKE THE COMMITMENT TO HELP A YOUTH.

One hour a week can make a big difference in a young person's future. It takes no special talents. Go for a walk, toss a ball around, read a book, or have a meal together. All it really takes is the ability to be there on a regular basis to listen and be a friend.

Midland Mentors is looking for volunteers to mentor teenagers who are in the Day Treatment Program at the Juvenile Care Center. Our kids need an adult friend who can encourage them in their lives. Will you be that friend?

Call or email Liz Kapla (837- 6255) for more information or e-mail lkapla@co.midland.mi.us.

Our local Midland County Probate Court also needs your help. Other ways to help Midland County kids:

The Court is looking for volunteers to become foster parents for our Midland County youth.

If you have just a few hours to share, the Court is looking for people to do guardianship reviews.

For further information and to take advantage of these opportunities please call Diana at 832 - 6398.
